

I looked at the resistance in MC and I calculated it to RC, then I put it through the duodecimal base-12. This framework works both as a report as an roadmap, one could use this to map out what kind of material belongs where.

Material (Element)	Electrical Resistivity (Metric / Base-10)	Royal Cubit Coordinate (RC)	Base-12 Representation	Vortex Root (Mod 11)	Sign zodiac
Aluminum (Al)	$2.82 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	53857	27201	1	♈ Aries
Lead (Pb)	$22.00 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	420168	1831α0	1	♈ Aries
Nickel (Ni)	$6.99 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	133498	6530α	2	♉ Taurus
Lithium (Li)	$9.28 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	177234	86696	2	♉ Taurus
Osmium (Os)	$8.12 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	155080	758ω4	2	♉ Taurus
Ruthenium (Ru)	$7.10 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	135599	6657ω	2	♉ Taurus
Iridium (Ir)	$4.70 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	89763	43ω43	3	♊ Gemini
Manganese (Mn)	$144.00 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	2750190	ω07666	3	♊ Gemini
Gold (Au)	$2.44 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	46600	22ω74	4	♋ Cancer
Molybdenum (Mo)	$5.34 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	101986	4ω02α	5	♌ Leo
Silver (Ag)	$1.59 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	30366	156α6	6	♍ Virgo
Tin (Sn)	$11.50 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	219633	α7129	7	♎ Libra
Mercury (Hg)	$98 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	1871657	763175	7	♎ Libra
Niobium (Nb)	$15.20 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	290297	11ωωω5	7	♎ Libra
Calcium (Ca)	$3.36 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	64171	31177	8	♏ Scorpio
Rhodium (Rh)	$4.30 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	82123	3ω637	8	♏ Scorpio
Zinc (Zn)	$5.90 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	112681	55261	8	♏ Scorpio
Iron (Fe)	$9.71 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	185446	8ω39α	8	♏ Scorpio
Titanium (Ti)	$42.00 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	802139	32824ω	8	♏ Scorpio
Bismuth (Bi)	$107.00 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	2043544	826734	8	♏ Scorpio
Chromium (Cr)	$12.50 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	238731	ω61α3	9	♐ Sagittarius
Copper (Cu)	$1.68 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	32085	16699	9	♐ Sagittarius
Sodium / Natrium (Na)	$4.77 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	91100	44878	9	♐ Sagittarius
Tantalum (Ta)	$13.30 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	254010	102ωω6	9	♐ Sagittarius
Neodymium (Nd)	$64.00 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	1222307	4αω42ω	9	♐ Sagittarius
Palladium (Pd)	$10.54 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	201298	985αα	9	♐ Sagittarius
Magnesium (Mg)	$4.39 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	83842	4062α	10	♑ Pisces
Cobalt (Co)	$6.24 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	119174	58ω72	10	♑ Pisces
Platinum (Pt)	$10.60 \times 10^{-8} \Omega \cdot m$	202444	991α4	10	♑ Pisces
Quartz / Teflon	$\infty \Omega \cdot m$	0	0	0	♑ Capricorn
Silicon / Germanium	Variable 0.46 to 2300 $\Omega \cdot m$			3 / 6 / 9	♒ Aquarius below is according to hermetic tradition.

Root 1 — The Prima Materia	Alchemical Identity: Aluminium / Lead	Tradition: The raw, unrefined first impulse. It is the beginning of manifestation where the heavy, base material (Lead) is first shocked into action by the electric flash of the cosmic fire.
Root 2 — The Alchemical Salt (The Buffer)	Alchemical Identity: Nickel / Osmium	Tradition: The principle of fixity, density, and crystallization. Salt absorbs impurities and shields the work from chaos, ensuring that the inner energetic fires do not crack the vessel.
Root 3 — The Pillar of Severity (The Bone)	Alchemical Identity: Iridium / Manganese	Tradition: The hard, vertical axis of the Temple. It is the rigid structure that holds the divine geometry in place, forcing the chaotic forces of nature to align into a straight, lawful path.
Root 4 — Sol / The Sun (The Lock)	Alchemical Identity: Gold	Tradition: The King of Metals. Gold represents spiritual perfection, absolute stability, and immortality. It cannot rust or corrupt; it anchors the entire system to the cosmic center, locking it in place so time cannot decay the energy.
Root 5 — The Quintessence (The Thermostat)	Alchemical Identity: Molybdenum	Tradition: The invisible fifth element that bridges the lower world with the higher. It balances hot and cold, ensuring the micro-geometry of the vessel remains untouched by external friction.
Root 6 — Luna / The Moon (The Highway)	Alchemical Identity: Silver	Tradition: The Queen of Metals. Silver represents the passive, purely reflective, and perfectly fluid highway of light. It offers zero resistance to the cosmic current, acting as a mirror that allows energy to travel instantly.

Root 7 — Mercurius / Mercury (The Door)	Alchemical Identity: Mercury / Tin / Niobium	Tradition: The Great Transformer and Shape-shifter. Mercurius is fluid, adapting to both spirit and matter. It acts as the threshold, opening and closing the gates to let the unseen magnetical vapors shift between dimensions.
Root 8 — Mars / The Iron Cage (The Trap)	Alchemical Identity: Iron / Bismuth	Tradition: The Force of War and Confinement. Mars is the shield, the armor, and the sword. Iron actively captures the invisible spirit-field and traps it within a dense wall, preventing the sacred force from bleeding into the outside world.
Root 9 — Venus / The Regenerative Engine (The Motor)	Alchemical Identity: Copper / Palladium	Tradition: The Force of Attraction, Creativity, and Life. Venus spins the primal energy, pulling things together into a beautiful, rotating vortex. Copper is the active womb that generates the spinning electromagnetic life-force of the machine.
Root 0 — The Azoth / The Void (The Reset)	Alchemical Identity: Magnesium / Cobalt / Platinum	Tradition: The Alpha and Omega, the Universal Solvent, and the Divine Silence. This root is the Great Void from which everything is born and to which everything must return. It dissolves all residual noise and conflict, resetting the current to absolute, unmanifested peace.
The Veil of Isis / The Akasha (The Containment)	Identity: Quartz / Teflon (Null)	Tradition: The pure, non-physical background space. It is the protective boundary or shroud that keeps the separate elemental forces from touching each other, forcing the cosmic light to stay strictly within the chosen geometric channels.

The Alchemical Anima / The Living Spirit (The Gates)	Identity: Silicon / Germanium (3 / 6 / 9)	Tradition: The shapeshifting elemental life-force. It is not stuck in one single planetary form. It actively travels through the spirit trinity of the temple, acting as the intelligent mind that decides when to let the energy flow and when to hold it back.

I mapped the zodiac earlier and I got this combination; ♈ Aries, ♉ Taurus, ♊ Gemini, ♋ Cancer, ♌ Leo, ♍ Virgo, ♎ Libra, ♏ Scorpio, ♐ Sagittarius, ♑ Pisces, ♒ Capricorn and ♒ Aquarius

(1.2.3.4.5.6.7.8.9.10. α. ω.) what is notable is that I now use a base 12 but it looks like a base 10. The positions 12, 10 and 11 are not changed but they are different noted. I linked the archetype on function with this as result.

Now the story that overlaps with this combination of archetypes is the story the sun god Ra through the 12 hours of the underworld.

The Active Light: Hours 1 to 9

1. ♈ Aries – The First Hour: The Gateway of the Beginning

Ra arrives at the western horizon and leaves his daytime chariot. He steps into the night barque and sails through the first giant gateway of the underworld. This is the first spark in the darkness: the direction is set, and the journey begins.

2. ♉ Taurus – The Second Hour: The Fertile Plain

The boat enters a wide, watery river plain. Here, Ra grants fertility and substance to the spirits of the earth. This hour brings weight, calmness, and a solid foundation to the vessel, ensuring that the storms of the night cannot destroy the ship.

3. ♊ Gemini – The Third Hour: Splitting the Current

The river splits into two equal channels. Ra must speak the secret names of the guardians on both sides of the riverbanks. The opposing forces are brought into perfect balance here, allowing the boat to sail straight through the middle without steering off course.

4. ♋ Cancer – The Fourth Hour: The Hidden Shield

The river suddenly dries up and turns into a desert of sand. The boat changes its form to glide invisibly and safely across the dry sand, secure from the serpents lurking in the dark. This is the hard, protective shield that keeps the inside safe.

5. ♌ Leo – The Fifth Hour: The Fiery Cavern

The boat reaches the deepest, hottest core of the subterranean mountain. Here lies the hidden cavern of the falcon god, surrounded by lakes of boiling fire. Ra braves the intense heat of the central inner sun. This is the point where the shape freezes and holds its form in the heat of the battle.

6. ♍ Virgo – The Sixth Hour: Cleansing the Stream

The water returns, and the boat merges with the primeval world-serpent. The crew washes themselves, and all heavy baggage is cast overboard. This is the hour of absolute purity and clarity, creating a completely clean path for the rest of the journey.

7. ♎ Libra – The Seventh Hour: Overcoming the Great Serpent

The giant chaos-serpent attempts to swallow the water of the river to stop the sun. Using magical voices and sharp knives, the crew binds and subdues the serpent. The balance of the cosmos is restored, and the danger is averted.

8. ♏ Scorpio – The Eighth Hour: The Sealed Chambers

The boat sails through a series of dark, hermetically sealed caves where the ancient gods dwell. The doors open only when Ra calls out their exact pitch. The chambers are tightly shut so that the divine power cannot escape outward.

9. ♐ Sagittarius – The Ninth Hour: The Highest Force

The night barque achieves its absolute highest speed and momentum. The crew of the sun god handles their oars with total precision and focus. Every force is maximally charged, bundled, and ready to break through the final boundary.

The Turning Point: The Deep Transformation

After the highest force, the familiar world ends. The boat plunges straight down, away from the known river, directly into the hidden dimensions of the cosmos:

10. ♑ Pisces – The Tenth Hour: The Plunge into the Primeval Ocean

Instead of a river or land, Ra's boat suddenly plunges into the deep, fluid waters of the primeval ocean. All fixed forms built during the day dissolve completely here. The crew can no longer steer, and regular time stands still. Everything implodes into the absolute state of rest in the depths of the sea.

11. ♑ Capricorn – The Eleventh Hour: The Wall of Stone

Deep beneath the water, the sun reaches the most dangerous and restrictive point of the night. A giant world-serpent restores order by wrapping itself completely around the boat like an impenetrable, iron sphere. Outside this sphere, chaos is thrown into deep pits of stone to trap it forever. This is the absolute wall of infinity and stillness that guards the structure.

12. ♒ Aquarius – The Twelfth Hour: The Emergence of the Spirit

The very last hour before the dawn. Ra sails into the back of the world-serpent as an old, dying god. Inside this fluid body, a complete reversal takes place: the old form falls away, and the sun god crawls out of the serpent's mouth as the sacred scarab beetle—the young morning sun. The heavy stones of the underworld shatter, the veil of night is torn apart, and the fluid life-spirit flows over the earth once more.
